

Through the ARTS

2007 Summer Institute

August 7 – 9, 2007

Orlando, Florida

The ARTS (music, drama, dance and visual arts) are powerful tools for teaching and learning in schools and communities. This Institute will give participants the inspiration, knowledge and skill to provide students in schools and in community settings with a complete education Through the ARTS. This professional development opportunity is open to anyone interested in learning in, through and about the arts.

Why attend?

- Learn how to utilize the power of the arts to transform teaching and learning.
- Get strategies to help you integrate the arts throughout the school curriculum.
- Create an “arts” look in your school environment.
- Learn strategies to maximize collaborative work.
- Develop a plan for successful arts integration across the curriculum of your school.
- Energize administrators, teachers, community artists and arts organizations.
- Meet others who share your interest in making schools better.

What will we do at the Institute?

- Experience hands-on arts activities to build your knowledge and skill in the arts as the same time as you
- Learn useful and effective teaching strategies and techniques to enhance student learning across the curriculum.
- Learn about successful school programs.
- Learn how artists and schools can work together for maximum benefit to students.
- Plan arts integration implementation with your school team

Over 30 successful teachers, administrators, and artists-in-schools will present sessions!

Bring your SCHOOL TEAM!

Administrators, teachers, artists and community members will be guided in Collaborative development of strategies for successful implementation of Institute content in their own schools.

Registration:

Registration fee is $325/participant.

Please register early to ensure your place at the Institute.
